CUSTOMER BENEFITS

The customer will benefit from the technical experience and expertise in a guided demonstration.

The customer will have confidence they can proceed with the product evaluation with the knowledge gained from the demonstration

The customer will benefit from a full interactive session with the ability to 'have a go themselves' if desired.

The customer will save time and future discrepancies that may otherwise occur from an unguided, literature based product brief.

ENVIRONMENT

The SIM demonstration will consist of:

- A HP p-Class/c-Class Enclosure with different models of Blade Servers
- A separate Deployment Management Server
- Windows & ESX Hosts
