HP OpenView Performance Insight Packaged Demonstration

DESCRIPTION

A Partner Services consultant will demonstrate a typical Performance Insight installation, OVPI is a market leading reporting tool and is also able to integrate with other OpenView product, as well as external and third party products.

DELIVERABLES

- An overview of the graphical user interface
- An overview of the standard out of the box reports
- An implementation of the standard OVPI installation with the Sybase database
- A demonstration of OVPI builder
- An overview of the different report packages available

CUSTOMER BENEFITS

The customer will benefit from the technical experience and expertise in a guided demonstration.

The customer will have confidence they can proceed with the product evaluation with the knowledge gained from the demonstration

The customer will benefit from a full interactive session with the ability to 'have a go themselves' if desired.

The customer will save time and future discrepancies that may otherwise occur from an unguided, literature based product brief.

ENVIRONMENT

The demonstration server will be using MS Windows 2000 SP4.
SNMP devices will be simulated using MIMIC, a virtual network simulator, allowing the simulation of a large number of nodes.
